FOREIGN COMMERCE.
 NEARLY THREE BILLIONS.
 (BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
 WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The foreign commerce of the United States approached surprisingly near to the three-billion-dollar mark in the calendar year 1905, according to a report issued by the Bureau of Statistics of the Department of Commerce and Labor.

"The total imports and exports of merchandise," the report says, "in 1905, amounted to $2,977,000,000, an average increase of $100,000,000 a year in the five-year period. Another notable characteristic of the year's foreign trade is the fact that the exports in the month of December, were practically $300,000,000, the largest month's exportation in any year prior to December, 1905, being that of December, 1904, when the total was $174,519,546."

The report adds: "The import record for 1905 is also in excess of that of any preceding year, being for the twelve months ending with December, $1,179,258,844, against $1,035,909,190 in 1904. The growth of imports, while not rapid, has been steady, and continues to be so, keeping pace approximately with the growth of population. The commerce with the non-contiguous territory of the United States alone makes a new high record for 1905, and will amount to about $130,000,000 in value, against a little less than $100,000,000 last year."

GRANDSON'S REMEMBERED.

Field's Millions Chiefly Go to Two Boys.

Chicago Also Beneficiary in Big Endowment.

Charitable Institutions Get Hundred Thousand.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

CHICAGO, Jan. 25.—By the will of the late Marshall Field, filed yesterday in the Probate Court, the city of Chicago is made the beneficiary to the extent of $500,000, which is to be used for the endowment and maintenance of the Field Columbian Museum, now situated in Jackson Park. The entire bequest for a museum, however, is made upon the express condition that within six years from the date of the death of Mr. Field there shall be provided for the museum, without cost to it, lands which shall be satisfactory to the trustees as the site for the permanent home of the museum. If, within the six years, the site has not been provided, the $500,000 is to revert to and become part of the residuary estate.

In addition to the sum left for the museum, various bequests aggregating $1,500,000 are made to relatives and friends of the testator. With these exceptions, the entire estate is to be kept intact until one of the two sons of Marshall Field, Jr., grandsons of the testator, shall have reached the age of 30 years. They are now 29 and 32 years of age, respectively. Marshall Field, Jr., died November 27, 1905, of a bullet wound accidentally inflicted while handling a revolver. Ripulated sums are to be paid to the two grandsons when they reach the age of 30, 35, 40 and 45. The executor of the will is the Merchants' Loan and Trust Company, bank in which Mr. Field held a great amount of stock. Charles C. Keep, an old friend of Mr. Field, and Arthur B. Jones, who had for many years been Mr. Field's secretary and confidential man, are named as co-executors.

The business of Marshall Field & Co. is to be maintained as a portion of the residuary estate.

VALUE OF ESTATE. Because of the failure to file a petition for the appointment of administrators, the value of the estate was not furnished to the court, and even the executors themselves are not able at this time to estimate it with accuracy.

The failure to file the petition with the bill is because of the great extent of the property held by Mr. Field and because much time will be required for its appraisal. It will probably be several weeks before the Probate Court is officially informed of its value. Among the bequests given by Mr. Field are the following:

To the Illinois Trust and Savings Bank, Chicago, $1,000,000. To the United States Trust Company of New York, in trust for Mrs. Beatty and her appointees, $1,000,000. To the Northern Trust Company, Chicago, in trust for Mrs. Beatty and her appointees, $1,000,000. To Mrs. Beatty, widow, in addition to the provision made for her in a marriage settlement, dated September 3, 1903, $1,000,000, together with the Field family home at No. 1902 Prairie avenue, with all its furnishings and equipment of every kind and value during her life. No mention is made in the will of the amount given to Mrs. Field at the time of the marriage settlement.

FINSTAD HELD FOR MURDER.

COUGHNER ALSO MUST ANSWER IN MEXICAN COURT.

Case of Los Angeles Men Suspected of Slaying McMurray and Rutherford Goes to Higher Tribunal—Consul Mills Places Discredit on Their Tale of Attack by Bandits.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

EL PASO (Tex.), Jan. 25.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] On the strength of evidence presented in the preliminary hearing, the judge in the court at Santa Rosalia has decreed that both Ole E. Finstad and Louis G. Coughner shall be held to the trial court to stand trial for the murder of R. W. Rutherford, Jr., of Philadelphia and C. W. McMurray of Los Angeles.

How soon the higher court will give attention to the case is not known. Public sentiment, which with the Mexican courts has a strong influence on decisions, appears to have a steady trend against the two suspects. The declaration of United States Consul Mills that he does not credit the bandit story is another factor in the decision of the judge who took the preliminary evidence. The entire investigation since the killing up to the present time has only served as a preliminary to the main trial in which the evidence must again be taken from the beginning.

In announcing his decision binding the two prisoners to the higher court, the judge said that the evidence against them was too strong to be disregarded, while the evidence for them was so weak that in the absence of definite knowledge, it was hardly to be considered.

United States Consul Mills of Chihuahua, in his report on the Diaz tragedy, discredits the story of an attack by bandits told by the two Los Angeles suspects, and declares the double killing resulted in a quarrel among the four men. His reasons for this, taken from a copy of his report, which was sent to the State Department at Washington before reaching here today, were that Gov. Creel was active in efforts to find the guilty persons and found no trace of bandits; that a valuable diamond ring on Rutherford's outstretched dead hand was not removed; that the bandits would hardly have attacked an hour when all were awake, and that, to quote his words: "Though public opinion is not always correct, I state that I found only two persons who profess faith in the robber theory. They were enthusiastic friends of the Finstad family."

Consul Mills says the lawyer who was employed on the consul's own recommendation to defend Finstad told him he did not believe Finstad innocent, but would defend him on other grounds.

Mr. Mills intimates that Finstad did not satisfy him that he had taken out his stolen papers and that the Santa Rosalia judge did not recognize Mills as Finstad's proper consul. As to Coughner, Mills says "He is poor, weak-minded and harmless. He is the only one who should give us much concern."

HAGGARD MUSE IS "NO LADY."

IOWANS THINK SHE CRIBBED FROM DELL SMITH.

Stanzas from Well-known Poem Found, Slightly Altered, in the Novel "Jesse"—Did Rider's Pegasus Stray to Newton Ia., to Browse in Gloomy Fields?

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

DES MOINES (Iowa), Jan. 25.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Did H. Rider Haggard, the novelist of international fame, steal the lines from the widely-known poem, "If I Should Die Tonight," written in 1873 by Miss Dell Smith of Newton, Iowa? Or are the accusations made by ex-Prof. Roberts of Tabor College and City Superintendent of Schools E. J. Baird of Newton, not well founded?

The two poems are published here tonight in "Des Moines Register" and are attracting the attention of literary people. Each poem contains four stanzas of twelve lines each. Brief excerpts will illustrate the startling showing made. Following are the concluding lines of the Smith poem:

"My faltering feet are pierced with many a thorn;
Forgive, O heart, estranged for ever, I
When dreamless sleep is mine, I shall not need
The tenderness for which I long to-night."

Against the foregoing Prof. Roberts places the concluding lines from Haggard's poem in "Jesse":

"My faltering feet are pierced with many a thorn;
The tender world has made my faint heart bleed.
When dreamless sleep is mine I shall not need
The tenderness for which I long to-night."

Prof. Roberts will write to Haggard for an explanation.

JUDGE CRAM DEAD.

BIDDEFORD (Me.), Jan. 25.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Judge Edwin J. Cram, one of the world's champion rifle shots, is dead at his home, of pneumonia, aged 55. He was captain of the Massachusetts team that won the famous McDonald trophy in the last national match ever shot over the old Creedmore range. He used the heaviest rifle in the world. It was especially made for him, and weighed thirty-eight pounds. He cultivated the muscles of his arms and shoulders especially for the rifle. He was a member of the army outstretched arm for 2 hours and 30 minutes without a quaver.

He was challenger of the world for the title of champion rifle shot, and for some time was inspector-general of Maine rifle practice.

The Effect Was Like Magic. I Felt Better From First Dose.

MR. E. A. KARNER, a Leading Citizen of St. Louis.

Like many a man and woman, Mr. Karner drifted into consumption through thinking he was too strong to doctor a mere cold. Only the use of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey at the critical moment saved his life. He says:

"Early last fall I caught cold, but being strong and rugged, had an idea I could wear it off. I kept getting worse all the time. The trouble went deeper into the throat and developed a bad case of catarrhal bronchitis. Medicine seemed to have no effect. The poison worked into my lungs, and by February the doctors gave me up to die of consumption. Hemorrhages impoverished my blood; I lost flesh, and was completely prostrated.

In despair I commenced taking Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. The effect was like magic. I felt better from the first dose. Hope crept into my heart, refreshing sleep came back, night sweats were not so frequent. I could take deep breaths with less pain, my digestion improved, and thanks to your wonderful medicine, in six months I was completely cured; once more a strong, hearty, well-filled-out man, full of vim, vigor and ambition."—E. ## TOWN TOPICS' ROTTENNESS.

Robert J. Collier Attacked It in His Weekly.

Daughter of the President is Not Safe from Abuse.

Hapgood Wrote Against "Blackmailing."

(THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—The issue of the trial of Norman Hapgood, editor of Collier's Weekly, charged with criminal libel in the publication of a paragraph commenting upon the marriage of the daughter of the President is not safe from abuse.

At the conclusion of Hapgood's address to the jury in which he declared that everything stated in the paragraph in Collier's Weekly was true, and in which he commented severely upon the character of Town Topics as a publication, an adjournment was taken until tomorrow, when District Attorney Jerome will appear for the prosecution.

Several witnesses were examined during the early hours of today's session. The striking feature of the testimony was given by Hapgood himself when he took the stand in his own behalf, and declared that what he had written about Town Topics was based upon information furnished to him by District Attorney Jerome himself.

Jerome here caused some merriment by his statement that he showed, after all, he was the writer of the article involved in the trial.

"That is true in a measure," assented Hapgood.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—In the Town Topics libel case against Norman Hapgood, Collier's publisher, the first witness today was:

Town Topics in October, 1904, I wrote an article referring to Miss Alice Roosevelt, only by her first name, and went down to the office. Hapgood's attention to that article was called to it by the editor of the United States. Hapgood's article, however, did not say that she was the daughter of the President, but when I read the article in the name Town Topics, I wrote in the same issue a paragraph which would doubtless involve personal abuse."

The arrest of Charles Able, the editor of Collier's, Hapgood wrote editorial, and while he was in the hospital, he was a disgrace for his conduct connected with Town Topics.

A man giving his name as William Henry will explain his actions in Police Court. He was picked up yesterday while trying to dispose of a valuable diamond brooch, the possession of which he failed to explain clearly.

For School Plans.

The Child-study Circle of the Washington-street school will give its postponed entertainment tonight at Paulk Hall. The proceeds are to be applied toward the purchase of a piano for the school.

In Wholesale Section.

Insurance Man Dead.

Charles L. Currier, for many years a prominent figure in insurance circles in Chicago and the West, died Wednesday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Evelyn C. Briggs, No. 738 Bonnie Brae street. He was 77 years old. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon.

Artistic Anatomy.

The first of a series of twelve lectures on Artistic Anatomy will be delivered on Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock in the School of Art and Design, Westlake Park, by Dr. W. F. McArthur. The lecturer will use the skeleton and life-figure in his demonstrations and all artists and art students are invited, and will be admitted on presentation of their cards.

Negroes to Start Drug Store.

A movement is on foot among local negroes, headed by Dr. T. J. Nelson, to form a company and open a first-class drug store. It is claimed that in many of the southern cities negroes are successfully conducting drug stores and it is believed that with the recent large accession of colored people to the population of Los Angeles and vicinity this enterprise conducted by men of their own race will prosper.

For Pure Food.

The Chamber of Commerce Committee on Commerce has been investigating the pure food question, and yesterday reported the resolution "that the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce favors the enactment of a law in substantial form of Senate Bill No. 21, Fifty-ninth Congress, entitled 'A bill for preventing the manufacture, sale or transportation of adulterated or misbranded or poisonous or deleterious drugs, medicines and liquids; and for regulating traffic therein, and for other purposes'."

High School Cadets' Drill.

The first competitive drill ever held by the cadet companies of the Los Angeles High School took place yesterday afternoon. Eight companies, numbering from forty to sixty each, took part, under the direction of O. S. Lousley, physical director of the High School. They were inspected by Col. Schreiber, Capt. Copp and Lieut. Braden. Co. F, under command of Capt. Tracy, was declared the winner, and Col. Schreiber presented it the banner for general excellence. The cadets were highly commended for their proficiency by Col. Schreiber.

Williamson Funeral.

The funeral of H. K. Williamson, a well-known music dealer of this city, who died Monday at Rancho, was held yesterday afternoon at the home of his brother, R. B. ## TWO THROWN BY CARS.

Flippers Flung by Moving Vehicles While Attempting to Swing on. Both Seriously Hurt.

Two men, Victor Burns and F. W. Smith, were injured seriously yesterday by slipping from the steps of moving street cars while attempting to board them. The accidents were at different points.

Burns tried to board a southbound University car at Ninth and Main streets. In his left hand he carried two beer bottles. He stepped into the street and the motorman slowed his car down. Burns let the front end go and attempted to jump onto the rear step. Just as he took hold of the hand rod, the motorman turned on the hand rod, and the car started forward suddenly, causing Burns to lose his grip and be thrown heavily to the sidewalk.

The man struck on his right side with such force that the bottles were shattered and his right hand was planted violently into the mass of broken glass. A piece of the neck of one of the bottles inflicted a long, jagged gash in the palm of the hand. Burns was stunned by the fall and was taken to the Receiving Hospital, where his hand was dressed. He was able to go home alone.

Smith, a negro living at No. 151 Vine street, attempted to board a west-bound First-street car at Vine street. He lost his grip on the rod and was thrown with such violence to the pavement that he was rendered unconscious. His right arm was broken between the elbow and the shoulder. He was taken to the Receiving Hospital.

ENDS LIFE WITH ACID.

Mrs. Quilhot Gives Money to Husband. He Returns Not, and She Commits Suicide.

Because her husband had deserted her, Mrs. John Quilhot of No. 527 San Julian street took her life by swallowing carbolic acid. Last Tuesday she wrote a note to her husband in which she said she was going to leave him and give him what cash she had, and at about noon he left her, saying he was going down town.

Since then she had not seen him, and though she feared desertion she kept hoping that he would return. Quilhot was a plasterer, but out of work, and came here from New York with his wife several weeks ago.

The dead woman left just one message: "Tell my son in Milledgeville, Carroll county, Illinois, I am Allison."

It was learned from persons living in the house that the best of feeling appeared to exist between husband and wife, that he was always kind to her, and spent his evenings at home.

Wednesday Mrs. Quilhot had told others at the house that the day before she had decided over to her husband notes to the value of $300 and all the money she had to enable him to secure a plastering contract. When he left Tuesday he said he would be home in time for dinner in the evening, but nothing has been seen of him since.

It does not appear that lack of funds had anything to do with Mrs. Quilhot's suicide, as she had a yearly income of $350 from a farm in Iowa. Aside from this it is said that her son in Illinois is well-to-do and has been anxious for his mother to make his home here for years.

Mrs. Quilhot was about 50 years of age. She had told friends in the house where she lived that Quilhot was her second husband. Her body was removed to Fresno's morgue and Coroner Trout will hold an inquest today.

The disappearance of Quilhot may or may not have been intentional on his part. There is a chance that he has met with foul play, and the Chief of Police gave orders yesterday to locate the man if possible.

Married Men's Troubles

Some of the married man's troubles come under the head of "boredom." "She" it is who makes a man get that Frock Suit. If you consider the buying of a Frock Suit trouble, don't for your own sake let the Frock Suit itself be a trouble. Let it be a garment that sets on you as if you had grown up in it. Don't let it be a "ready-made" affair. Such a distinguished garment ought to be individual—ought to be made for you—and more important than all, ought to be made for you by Brauer & Krohn. $45, $55 and $70.

Women's Clubdom Stirred Over Mrs. Washington.

To Receive or Not Receive is Burning Question.

Leading Lady of Her Race to Arrive Today.

Mrs. Booker T. Washington, wife of the most prominent negro in the United States, will arrive today from San Francisco, and her coming will make a stir in Los Angeles.

During this western trip Mrs. Washington has spoken to large audiences in various cities, regarding the important work carried on by the Tuskegee (Ala.) Industrial School, in the training of both mind and muscle of young negroes.

She will give one address while here, at the Hotel California.

WAR TO END WHITE PLAGUE.

League Plans Strong Fight on Great Destroyer.

Moves to Start Local Dispensary and Clinic.

Will Wage a Campaign of Prevention and Cure.

The Anti-Tuberculosis League of Southern California has thrown down the gauntlet to the "great white plague," the destroyer of millions.

As a result Los Angeles may soon have a free dispensary and medical clinic for patients suffering from tuberculosis, where treatment may be secured from leading physicians.

There will be a vigorous campaign of education throughout the city on how to prevent the spread of tuberculosis, and the proper methods for the cure or relief of patients so affected.

These things are to come about as the result of the second annual meeting of the league, held last night in the art rooms of the Biltmore Hotel.

There was a large attendance, many of the leading physicians of the city being in the audience. Dr. Francis M. Puttenger presided. The Boy's Club of the Polytechnic High School gave two vocal selections.

Dr. Puttenger in his annual address gave many interesting facts about the disease, and the facts about the war for extermination of the plague.

"Tuberculosis is a disease brought on by the conditions of our society," said he. "It finds its easiest victims among the poor, the underfed, the people occupying poorly-ventilated rooms, the victims of the social conditions of the city."

Dr. Puttenger then gave accounts of the systems of treatment which have been used in Davos, Switzerland, which has more than 20,000 cases of tuberculosis, and of these 10,000 are tubercular patients of the system in vogue in Berlin, where the death rate has been reduced to a remarkable degree.

He advocated these measures for Los Angeles. They consist in the registration of each case of tuberculosis; thorough fumigation of rooms occupied by patients after their removal; a complete inspection of lodging-houses and detection of sleeping-rooms; the establishment of a free medical dispensary for examination of patients and treatment of diseases of tubercular nature; a statement of a number of great powers of endurance, and a knowledge of mountain climbing.

In the winter time, there is little danger from fire, and the rangers build trails. Here again a man minus an arm or leg or a lung it is a disadvantage. Just how many of them are to be put out of commission is causing a number of them to lie awake at night and think.

On the pay roll of the San Gabriel Reserve is a ranger who is said to owe his appointment to the fact that his brother is a politician and official of this county, and is frequently in the lime-light.

WAR TO END WHITE PLAGUE.

League Plans Strong Fight on Great Destroyer.

Moves to Start Local Dispensary and Clinic.

Will Wage a Campaign of Prevention and Cure.

The Anti-Tuberculosis League of Southern California has thrown down the gauntlet to the "great white plague," the destroyer of millions.

As a result Los Angeles may soon have a free dispensary and medical clinic for patients suffering from tuberculosis, where treatment may be secured from leading physicians.

There will be a vigorous campaign of education throughout the city on how to prevent the spread of tuberculosis, and the proper methods for the cure or relief of patients so affected.

HIDE TRAGEDY CAN'T BE HIDDEN.

Sad is the Tale of a Shirt-Tailless Soldier.

Cause of Seventh Regiment Feud and Court.

Military Havoc Wrought by a Buttoned Blouse.

Listen: A man with nothing but a bare skin under his military blouse has been discovered to be the real cause of this horrible feud in the Seventh Regiment, N.G.C.

It progressed yesterday to the climax—which is a court-martial ordered by Gen. Wankowski to convene a week from tomorrow night. The order convening a general court was issued yesterday.

Little did the obscure and anonymous warrior dream what havoc he might wreak when he pulled his military coat on over his old bare hide. Ah, if he had only had as much as a "dickiey."

He was the real contributing cause behind the quarrel between Col. Schreiber and Capt. McKenna—the cause of the "resignation" of the latter. This has just been revealed—not his hide, but the fact.

Oh, what tragedies sometimes hang on the tail of a missing shirt! Can you be the unlucky wretch for whom the court-martial has been ordered?

The object of the court being called together is a mystery to National Guardsmen here.

WHY THE "VICTIM?" The cruel and ridiculous rumor that Lieut.-Col. Schreiber will be brought before it because of his part in the fracas leading to the "resignation" of Capt. McKenna is without foundation. Military courts headed by majors do not try lieutenant-colonels except under exceptional circumstances.

Col. Schreiber is, moreover, not under arrest, and himself issued the order convening the court.

Capt. McKenna has not been informed of the purpose of the court's being called together. It was positively stated at the Armory last night that it is not McKenna who is to be tried.

In spite of the denial that the court has anything to do with the McKenna case, it is notable that the following details for the court do not include any one from McKenna's company: Maj. S. M. Saltmarsh, Seventh Infantry; Capt. John E. Sullivan, quartermaster, Seventh Infantry; Capt. L. D. Collins, Co. I; Capt. A. J. Copp, Jr., Co. A; Capt. D. G. Fisher, Co. C; First Lieut. H. E. Sabine, First Co. Signal Corps; First Lieut. A. F. C. Dea, Co. C; First Lieut. A. T. Barclay, Co. I; First Lieut. O. C. Hogan, Co. A; and Lieut. W. H. Flood, Co. C; Second Lieut. T. D. Demmitt, Co. A; Second Lieut. A. Paine, Co. H; Second Lieut. H. W. Slotterbeck, First Co. Signal Corps; Maj. Lawler, Judge-Advocate First Brigade, Judge-Advocate.

A reconciliation was effected at the Armory last night between Col. Schreiber and Capt. McKenna. McKenna was willing to do the right thing when he learned that his private without a shirt-tail was to blame for his humiliation at the hands of the inspecting officer. Instead of the "tenant-colonel."

It was the shirt-tailless man who caused the company to be reprimanded ordered off the floor by Col. Wilhelm of the regular army.

SHIRT-TAILLESS THRILL. It seems that during the inspection, the company had not been doing well owing to slackness of discipline and the inspector had been growling blacker and blacker. Finally he directed the first sergeant to inspect the men open their blouses, presumably in order to examine the condition of the clothing.

Biggest "Snap" Ever in Bananas Here.

"Banana! Bigga banana, banana—10 cent da do!" Thus the cry from Italian fruit peddlers at many a place in the downtown districts. Never in the history of Los Angeles have good bananas been so cheap as during the past few days. For 10 or 12 cents one has been enabled to secure really fine bananas, full grown, without blemish or speck. It has been a feast of delight to lovers of this rich fruit.

But market men say the situation so tempting to fruit purchasers is only temporary. It was brought about by a peculiar combination of circumstances.

Ordinarily the Los Angeles market consumes about five carloads of bananas a week. These come through directly from New Orleans, which is the distributing point for banana companies of the "trust" operating fruit ships between that city and the Central American countries.

Chinese New Year is responsible for it. It is a well-grounded maxim in the mind of every Chinaman that to work is to be performed during the New Year festivities, which can absolutely be avoided. This is the rest time, the holiday period of the entire year, and the Chinese, from the merchants to the vegetable peddlers, make the most of it. Thus it happens that fully 300 Chinese vegetable and fruit peddlers have their wagons off their usual runs and as all of these men carry bananas on their routes, the sales from this source are very much reduced, and will be for several days.

In the face of this condition there came to the Los Angeles market two carloads of ripe bananas. To save this fruit it was shoved out through the medium of the Italian wagon peddlers, and the low rate was made to induce lively sales and prevent loss.

Robert Owens said yesterday that he has plans in preparation for a six-story, pressed-brick block on the old church site, and that it will soon be begun.

especially to the colored preachers of Los Angeles. It is probable that she will also make a public address, but details for this have not been arranged.

Now, while this visit of Mrs. Washington would ordinarily be a matter of slight importance, it is said that the local women's clubdom is agitated because of it.

In Los Angeles there are scores of southern ladies who are prominent in women's clubs. They have pronounced sentiments on the proposition of inviting Mrs. Washington to appear as a guest of their organizations. Some of them have expressed themselves vigorously; others, whose views are known to be equally pointed, are not talking up, but say they will.

Madame Severance, president emerita of the Friday Morning Club, and a pioneer in the club work on the Pacific Coast, is very much interested in the enterprise of Booker T. Washington, and his wife, and she is anxious that Mrs. Washington be asked to be the guest of the Friday Morning Club, and to speak on the work of Tuskegee institute.

One southern woman, who is well known in clubdom, and has long been prominent in official chairs of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, yesterday afternoon declared: "I presume they can invite this woman to come and speak before our club, if they wish to; but if they do, I can tell you they won't see me there for a good long time—and as to asking that nigger to come and sit down to lunch with us," with a gasp of indignation, "that is certainly the limit!"

Other women conspicuous in club circles are in a quandary. When Booker T. Washington was in Los Angeles a few years ago, and spoke to such large public audiences that there were literally mobs fighting their way into the buildings on Friday Morning Club took him up and received him as an honored guest. He addressed that body, and personally greeted a large number of the members.

The precedent was set; a negro had been "received." But now, when it comes to receiving this same negro's wife, there arises a wonderful difference. "Twixt twiddle-dum and twiddle-doo."

While officers of the Friday Morning Club are pondering over how they are going to extricate themselves from an embarrassing position without completely ignoring an acknowledged leader of colored women, or without perhaps seriously offending a large section of Los Angeles women's clubdom—the southern ladies of the Ebell Club has been "meeting" ties on the "back" because of its own inactivity.

LOOKS SEAMY FOR RANGERS.

SHAKE-UP DUE AMONG FEDERAL MEN OF MOUNTAINS.

Agricultural Department is Getting After the Incompetents and Some of Those in San Gabriel Reserve May Go—Gripplies and Invalids Have Places on Pay Rolls.

There is a shaking of bones among the forest rangers of the San Gabriel Reserve. The official ax is about to fall.

During the time that the rangers were under the control of the Department of the Interior it was an easy matter to get the appointment of ranger when a vacancy occurred, but now that they are under the Department of Agriculture it is altogether different; the applicant must pass a Civil Service examination.

The Department of Agriculture, too, has discovered that when it took over from the Department of the Interior the change of the forest reservations, it had on its pay rolls as forest rangers a number of men who, as fire fighters, fire-break makers or trail builders, were perfectly useless.

EVENTS IN LOCAL SOCIETY.

WITHOUT doubt Robert Clark of Peoria and his beautiful blonde wife are the most popular visiting couple who have come to the city in many a day. Scarcely a day passes without some pretty function to which they are invited. Mrs. Clark has been here nearly three months, there seems to be no diminution of the gayeties.

Last evening they were entertained with a charming little dinner given by Frank Ray at the Van Noy, and followed by a party at the Belasco.

Mrs. Paul Flammer, a handsome young matron who has recently returned home after a short trip.

lived by a box party at the Belasco. The guests dined at a round table lighted with violet lights and from whose center a mass of the fragrant violets arose. Corage bouquets of violets for the ladies and buttonholes for the men were sweet souvenirs.

Besides Mr. and Mrs. Clark and Mr. Frederick T. Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Stimson and Mr. Ray.

Wednesday Mrs. W. D. Woolwine was hostess at a delightful party given for Mrs. Clark. The table was decked with roses, and covers were laid for ten.

Paul Hagdorn, who celebrated his tenth birthday with a party.

Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Fred T. Griffith of No. 2255 Severance street gave a theater party in compliment to the same happy pair.

Pretty Miss Lewis Feted.

Miss Lida Lewis, the dashing and petite Kentucky girl with a distinctly charming manner who is visiting Miss Leslie Graydon Lewis, was the honored guest at a tea given by Mrs. William A. Lewis of No. 3018 South Figueroa street.

Nearly one hundred of the smartest maids and matrons of the city gathered to bid this pretty maid welcome, and the home was transformed into a bower of sweet blossoms.

The hall, reception room and library gleamed with great bunches of poinsettias massed here and there and in the dining-room, where tea was served, pink sweet peas combined with tulip buds and shaded lights produced a charming effect.

The guest of honor was attired in a fetching frock of pale blue silk and lace and carried a great cluster of violets. Miss Lewis wore white and Miss Lida Lewis was attired in champagne with touches of pale blue.

Besides the hostess and guest of honor assisting were Misses William L. Graves, Alexander J. Chandler, William T. Johnson, E. W. Britt, William D. Woolwine, Dan Murphy, Albert M. Stephens, Ellis Barrett and Miss Leslie Lewis.

Mrs. Fessenden Honored.

Mrs. A. M. Fessenden of Boston in visiting her sister, Mrs. Ralph H. Miller, of No. 2450 West Twenty-third street, and expects to spend the winter in California.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Miller entertained a party of sixteen women friends with a cozy little card party in honor of her sister. What was played, and the prizes consisted of tickets to "Way Down East" and a pair of fancy gloves. Scores were marked on pretty cards adorned with fancy heads and quotations.

Later, dainty refreshments were served and music was a pleasant feature.

BUILD NEW OPERAHOUSE.

FINE STRUCTURE PLANNED FOR SANTA BARBARA.

Sixty Thousand Dollars or More is to be Expended in the Enterprise. Site Chosen is Centrally Located. Three-Story Structure With Store Rooms on Upper Floors.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SANTA BARBARA, Jan. 25.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) This city is to have a new opera house, which is to cost about $60,000. Several schemes for the construction of a new playhouse have been considered in the last few years without success, but there is no doubt about the present plans being carried out. It is backed by two prominent business men, who have not as yet made their names public, and Miss M. Potter is one of the heavy stockholders of the enterprise.

He says it will be built without fail. A half block of land on the corner of State and Montecito streets was purchased several weeks ago for this purpose. It is an admirable opera house site, one block from the new depot, and two blocks from the Potter Hotel. The building is to be a two- or three-story structure with store rooms on the upper floors.

ORCHESTRA BANQUET.

Tenth Anniversary of the Congregational Musical Organization is Celebrated.

The tenth anniversary of the organization of the First Congregational Orchestra was observed last night by the giving of a banquet in the parlor of the church. Covers were laid in the banquet hall for about one hundred, and a delightful menu was served by the ladies of the church, who volunteered for the duty. There were present about an equal number of ladies and gentlemen in full dress, and the affair was a particularly pleasant one.

The menu was unique in that it contained many "jokes" particularly pertinent to a gathering of musicians. For instance, there were chicken pie with drum sticks; time beats; Mead, no sticks; foot fiddle; pickled strings, and other like hits.

William H. Mead, who has been the director of the orchestra from the day of its organization, was toastmaster, and at the conclusion of the feast, the following toasts were proposed:

"The Poetry of Music," Miss M. C. Cunningham; "Think About the Orchestra," Dr. Warren F. Day; "The Sunday-school and the Orchestra," C. E. Fisher, superintendent; "Our Future," Mr. J. C. Cook; "Our Guests," Paul Brown; "Infantry of the Orchestra," Mr. L. A. "Letter from Miss Crowder," Miss Jones.

Ten years ago this splendid orchestra of forty pieces, began with six. During the years it has had different members, and it has required good management and skilful handling to keep it up to the mark. It is a credit to the city, and for years it has been known as one of the finest musical organizations of the city.

WOMEN AND DIVORCE.

They Take Steps to Secure Representation in National Conference on All-Important Subject.

At a meeting of the Los Angeles W.C.T.U. held yesterday in the First Methodist Church, a paper entitled: "The Injustice of Divorce to Women," from a Standpoint of Human Rights," was read by Mrs. E. M. Deardorf.

The trend of the paper was the upholding of the popular side of the divorce question from the female standpoint, to the effect that the woman is unjustly made to suffer while the man goes jauntily after the second wife whom he had picked out before he obtained a divorce from the first one.

The woman, on the other hand, is made to suffer obliquely after having lost all that has made life dear to her. Mrs. Deardorf said that if there was to be a national conference on the subject of divorce she thought the women were surely the most deeply interested, should be represented by delegates.

A resolution was adopted that a committee of three women be sent to the meeting of the State Commission of Divorce, which will be held on Monday afternoon at the Pro-Cathedral, this city, to take the matter up with the authorities.

Dr. Marchant, pastor of the Boyle Heights Presbyterian Church, who is chairman of the commission, said last night: "Speaking for myself, I am very much in favor of admitting the women to our meeting, and knowing the temper of the commission, I think they will all feel the same way."

At the close of the meeting yesterday Mrs. Lucy Blanchard said: "I am glad to see the women wake up on the subject of divorce, but if they were a little wiser awake on the liquor question, and would do away with the breweries and the saloons, they would remove many of the causes of divorce."

CHILD A HEROINE.

Ten-Year-Old Girl Saves Her Two Little Brothers from Death in a Fire.

A tragedy was narrowly averted at a fire which for a time threatened to destroy the home of Mrs. Ida McClain, No. 224 Boyd street, last night. The prompt and intelligent action of Allice McClain, aged 10, saved her own life and her two brothers, aged respectively 7 and 3. After she had dragged the children from the blazing room, J. M. Flowers, who occupies a room in the house, put out the fire.

Mrs. McClain had left her home for the evening and was in attendance at church services. Allice had been left in charge of the household during her mother's absence, and it was her duty to keep the children safe.

At 8 o'clock began preparing her two little brothers for bed.

While removing the clothes from the youngest boy, Allice laid out his night dress, and without thinking of the consequences, placed a lamp on top of the garment. The girl was hurriedly to the door, and in doing so upset the lamp on the table.

Flames leaped from the cloth and the clothes, which were strewn about, and these ignited from the flame of the lamp. In an instant the room was ablaze.

The little heroine was within a foot of the burning table, but she thought nothing of her own peril, and the other children she dragged them out of the house, although they were almost naked.

Flowers heard the girl's screams and ran to her assistance. He succeeded in preventing a spread of the flames, and had the fire almost extinguished by the time the department arrived.

Divided Authority and Bickerings, Fomenting Divisions to Co-Exasperating Audit

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT)

ANAMA (Panama) Jan. 8.—Hispanicity has it that in 1928 Philip II of Spain thought of building a canal through the Isthmus. Engineers responsible for the Isthmian Canal Commission of the enterprise there were so much politics and scandal that the distracted monarch regretted the project and "ordered that no canal be built through the Isthmus." The project was revived by the subject or make of the canal.

Four hundred years later the thought has come to a Frenchman to build a canal through the Isthmus. The project is now being revived by the subject or make of the canal.

Decided Authority at Panama, Fre- quent Bickerings, Failure of Differ- ent Divisions to Co-operate and an Exasperating Audit System.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.)

It should be in the hands of one man, not of two. It is this inharmonious condition of the force more than of an insurmountable difficulty appearing in the work of the canal zone, which has led the workers to say the canal never will be finished by the government. It is surprising how widespread is this belief. Civil and mechanical engineers, chief of departments, clerks, foremen, steam shovel men and laborers after eighteen months of experience entertain it and unhesitatingly advance it.

No doubt the confusion from which they are just emerging through the efforts of the chief engineer and the fear of its return when he shall become occupied with the task of excavation have some extent created doubt as to the wisdom of continuing the real work under government methods. The bad food and quarters they have until recently been forced to put up with sensibly affected their ability and desire to work.

In the greater degree their idea of the unwisdom of the government continuing to build the canal is caused by the demonstrated failure of its different departments to co-operate; the payment of good salaries to poor men and poor to good; long delays in the payment of their own and the wages of laborers which has bred general dissatisfaction and carelessness, because it is understood the system of payment cannot be improved under government regulations; slow in the delivery of material of all kinds and the often poor quality thereof accepted from contractors through ignorance, necessity for immediate use, or corruption; the exceedingly little work done in the canal zone by the government builds the canal it will be a very long and expensive undertaking.

AUDITING SYSTEM POOR.

There is special strength in the complaint of the men in payment of wages and bills incurred for material and supplies. The audit and pay system has more seriously embarrassed the government than any other part of the work. It is a system of the government red tape. Every indebtedness for wages or supplies has to be audited by the resident auditor, who may hold up items admittedly fair, but of the authorization of which he may have his doubts. He passes may be held up by the disbursing officer, who is under bonds, and merely because a bill is not properly approved it relieves him from no responsibility. The auditor must pass on it. It must be passed on by the commission auditor in Washington, who does not see the bills, but all of whose accounts are finally passed on by the auditor for the War Department, who draws the check.

This four-wheeled machine expiates every dollar who tries to work for the government. The work of it is impossible to figure. The system of receipting for material issued to departments is purely governmental and bad. Under it a busy foreman has to sign a multitude of vouchers, many of which they are not to sign twice or more for the same car or even shipment of material. Thus while the front door of the Treasury is open, the back door of opportunity is wide open.

Five proper accounts are kept. It would be impossible to trace and locate one-tenth of the material that has been received and issued on the work. Efforts have been made to get a better accounting system, but experts brought here from New York have shaken their heads and gone home. After examination they said they could do nothing so long as every improvement suggested by them in the line of sound business methods and common sense was pronounced by the Controller of the Treasury to be contrary to treasury regulations. They therefore announced that any better system of audit and payment under government control was impossible.

QUESTION OF NATIONAL PRIDE.

In answer to the suggestion that the work would better be turned over to contractors is the plea that such action would be taken by the world at large to mean that the United States had at last undertaken a project it was unable to carry out. It is held that national pride would revolt at this, and that no proof of economy in time or money on the part of the contract system would induce the American people to abandon the canal as a national work done by the government.

To this strong factor against change, the chief engineer adds a less sentimental but more potent reason why from his standpoint, the canal should be finished by the government and not by contractors. When asked if he shared the popular belief of the assistants that it would be better to let out the work in sections and quarters to contractors, he looked up and shook his head.

"You think it would not work?" remarked the correspondent. "Why? Is it because it would take longer, cost more, hurt national pride if changed, or because of the popular belief of the assistants that it would be better to let out the work in sections and quarters to contractors, he looked up and shook his head."

TO STUDY BIRDS AND ANIMALS.

GOVERNMENT-GATHERING FACTS IN CALIFORNIA.

Expert Now Here from Washington, Trapping and Hunting for National Museum—Something About Our Animals—Ambition to Get a Red Fox Was Gratified.

Uncle Sam is seeking information regarding the animals of California. Specimens of all animal and bird life peculiar to this State are being trapped, prepared by a skilled taxidermist and shipped on to Washington where they will be carefully classified and placed in the National Museum.

An expert trapper is now in the vicinity of Chico securing these specimens. The Chicago Post says: "There is a very interesting man in town and his business is one that is likewise not only interesting, but is very much out of the ordinary. He is representative of Uncle Sam and has come direct from Washington, D. C. to find out what manner of birds and beasts that fly the air and roam the woods are to be found in this locality."

His name is James M. Gaut, and the department of the government to which he specially belongs is the Biological Survey of the Agricultural Department. For some time he has been in the vicinity of the Sacramento River, near the ferry landing, having trapped and secured a number of birds and mammals and extended his researches even as far as St. John.

When seen this morning, Mr. Gaut explained his mission and exhibited several of the specimens recently acquired here. There were boxes of stuffed jack rabbits, caracaras, wild squirrels, gophers and field mice and numerous specimens of brightly-colored birds.

These specimens had all been carefully prepared and stuffed and neatly arranged in their cases preparatory to shipment to the National Museum at Washington, where they will be carefully classified. The purpose of the survey is to find out what manner of birds and beasts that fly the air and roam the woods are to be found in this locality.

One of the main reasons for his advent here was that he might secure a specimen of a red fox, which is known to live in some vicinity. Fox and again men have killed these animals near here, but the department so far has not received any specimens, nor will it until the red fox is secured by Mr. Gaut. A few days ago near St. John, and which is now in transit, arrives at Washington.
